

Marie-Bénédicte COHU

pianist

Marie-Bénédicte COHU studied at the « Ecole Normale de Musique » in Paris and obtained two « Licences de Concert » in piano and chamber music.

She worked with Bruno Rigutto and joined the « Haute Ecole de Musique » in Genova and obtained a First Prize of virtuosity in chamber music.

Marie-Bénédicte is passionate about chamber music and played in numerous concerts in France, United Kingdom, United States, Switzerland, going from the sonata repertoire to the sextuor.

She has also recorded CDs of the great piano repertoire involving Bach, Beethoven, Liszt, Schumann, Brahms, Prokofiev, Scriabine, Rachmaninov, Debussy, Ravel and Duboscq, which was the world premiere recorded CD of his piano work.

Since 2013, she has created the ensemble Accord Parfait which gives the opportunity to young musicians to perform in recitals in wonderful venues around France. It enables musicians to work together the repertoire of sonatas and piano trios. A CD will be released in summer 2020.

Music news papers critics stated:

« It is time to express all our admiration for the performer, her technical mastery, her natural game, her genuine sound ». (i.e: Le Dauphiné Libéré - Les Affiches de Grenoble).