

Paul Wingfield attended Chetham's School of Music, where he studied the oboe with Sonia Wrangham and Evelyn Barbirolli, and the piano with Charles Hopkins. He lectures in Music at Cambridge University and has published widely on nineteenth-and-twentieth-century music. Paul specialises in Czech Music. He is an expert on Janacek and is on the Board of Editors for the Complete Martinu Edition.

Paul and Leora perform regularly as duo partners in recitals across the UK. Their next recital will be at Stonegrove Synagogue, Edgware, on 20th December 2022.

